INSTRUCTION

When a fire occurs, the covered is required to deliver to the Company an account of the several articles or matters damaged or destroyed by the Fire, with the estimated Cash Value of each item. When property hereby covered is only partially damaged by fire, no abandonment thereof will be allowed unless by consent of the Company or its Agents.

The cash value of property destroyed or damaged by Fire shall in no case exceed what would be the cost to the covered of replacing the same; and in case of the depreciation of such property from use, or otherwise, a corresponding deduction shall be made from the cost of replacement in order to ascertain the actual Cash Value immediately before the Fire.

Cause of Fire to be stated as explicitly as possible, and where the cause is undiscovered, any suspicion of incendiarism to be mentioned.

The following particulars are required when the claim relates to:

1. Building
 - (a) A Builder's or Architect's estimate (obtained at the expense of the covered) giving dimensions and prices of the work require to place the building in the same state of repair as before fire.

No contemplated improvements to be included in the estimate.

(b) The covered to state whether he holds the property as sole or part owner; or otherwise.

2. Furniture

(a) A complete list of articles damaged or destroyed.

(b) Cost of each and when and where bought.

(c) Value of each immediately before the fire, after deduction for past wear and tear, deprecation. Etc.

(d) Value of salvage.

3. Goods and Merchandise

(a) List of articles damaged or destroyed

(b) The price of each according to the market value of the goods immediately before the fire.

(c) Value of Salvage.

N.B. When the policy is subject to the average pro rata condition, a full and exact statement of the whole value of the property within the protection of the Policy or of the item or items under which the claim made must be furnished.

In case where the loss is only a trifling one and the agent has been able to satisfy himself as to the accuracy of the claim within the intervention of an Assessor, the former should state over his/her signature.
